Child Welfare Action Committee Letter of Intent Announcement

On Wednesday, April 16, 2008, Governor Ritter issued an executive order creating a Child Welfare Action Committee to begin making immediate improvements to Colorado's child-protection system.

The GOVERNOR'S OFFICE OF BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS is now accepting letters of intent for this Committee. The deadline for submitting a letter of intent is FRIDAY, MAY 23, 2008.

If you are interested in submitting a letter of intent, please include the following in your letter:

- Why you want to serve on this committee and what skills and experience you can bring to bear on the committee's work
- Who would you represent (please indicate which of the following categories you would fit into):
  - County Commissioner
  - County social services representative
  - Individual with judicial experience
  - Individual with experience in early childhood development and/or K-12 educational representative
  - Children's representative serving in a private or non-profit entity dedicated to the protection of children
  - Families or children who are current and/or former recipients of child welfare services in Colorado
  - A member of the business community who will bring management and business planning experience to the Committee
- The geographic area in which you currently reside
